THE
1963
BOBCAT STAFF
IS
"Looking Toward the Future"

IOWA SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF
COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1963, have great respect and love for the person to whom this book is dedicated.

- ✓ You have helped the boys find successful vocational positions by your careful training of them in class;
- ✓ You are a quiet, calm, and cheerful man;
- ✓ You have inspired the boys in your classes to do their best work. The boys whom you have trained are Looking Toward the Future when they can show their skills as carpenters, cabinetmakers, and furniture workers;
- ✓ You say you aren't sure what you will be doing after retirement from I.S.D., but we know you belong to the "Space Age," and like a space man mentally, will be looking Toward the Future with new interests.

We, of the present senior class dedicate this, our year book, to honor a teacher whom we appreciate and will always remember with devotion and gratitude: MR. ANTON NETUSIL.

1963 BOBCAT STAFF

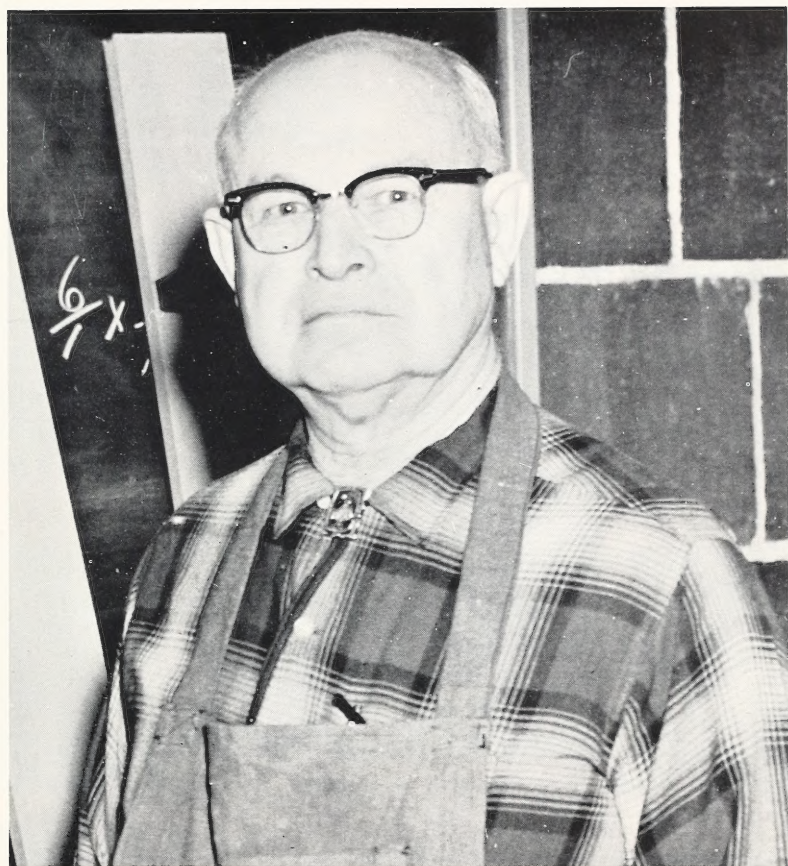

A yearbook is many things and many people . . . In addition to the actual blood, sweat, and tears that go into its preparation, a yearbook consists of numerous schedulings and reschedulings, of missed appointments, of "crossed wires," of just plain goofing and hoping that the error can be corrected before the deadline.

A yearbook is an attempt to reflect the cooperative efforts of all the people involved in educating and caring for the students of a school . . . It is also an attempt to catch the moods, delights, and hopes of the students and staff members . . . In later years, a yearbook is a half-forgotten momento to be dusted off before attending a class reunion, lest we be faced with the embarrassment of having forgotten the name of a one-time sweetheart or a dear buddy. A yearbook is to cry over a little, to laugh at, to put away in some dark attic; to remember again, and to take out once more, for after all, a yearbook is to enjoy. We hope that you will enjoy this yearbook.

Here are the names of some of the people who have contributed their time and energies to give you a glimpse of what the seniors are expecting while they are Looking Toward the Future:

Ann Banes, Janet Batcheller, Carolyn Halupnick, Anita Lehman, Janet Johnson, Arlene Ritze; Reporters, Typists, and Ad Saleswomen; Daisy Surber, Advertising Sales; Pat Sell, Raymond Shannon, Ronald Tegarden, Larry Tierney, Gerald Weiland, Advertising and Yearbook Sales. A special note of thanks to Roy Milligan for the drawing and a very special note of thanks to Mr. C. E. Geasland for all pictures except those of the seniors. Our thanks go to Bob Pyles for the Senior Class portraits.

SCENES FROM the EASTERN STATES Tour

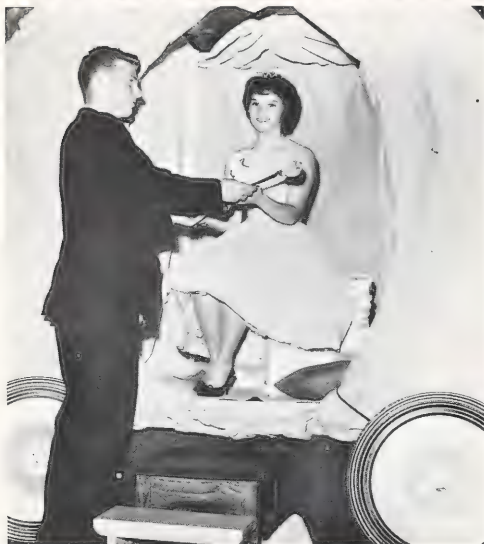

Rockets in front of Smithsonian Institute
Washington, D. C.

We enjoyed a number of

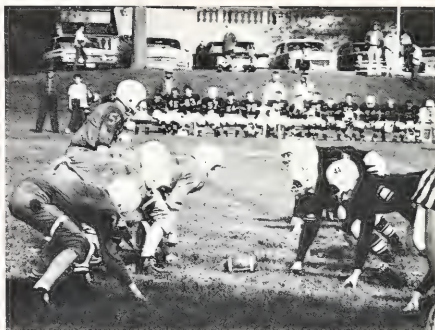

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING:

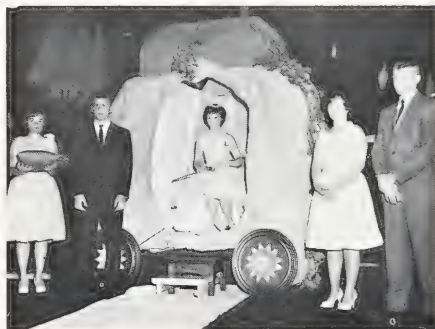

A DAY OF CORONATION

Queen Anita I, receives Scepter from Gerald Weiland in her "Cinderella" pumpkin coach.

A DAY OF EXCITEMENT

I.S.D. vs. Tri-Center

A DAY OF ROYALTY

Princess Carolyn, Escort Gerald Weiland, Queen Anita, Princess Janet and Escort Patrick Sell pose for royal family picture.

AND A DAY OF RELAXATION

Mr. and Mrs. Berg, Queen Anita and G. Weiland, and Princess Carolyn and W. Zimmerman enjoy a royal dance at the end of the HOMECOMING DAY activities.

We shall never forget . . .

THE MARDI GRAS COUPLES

When J. Batcheller, C. Halupnick and escorts R. Tegarden and L. Sebert looked so pretty and handsome in their formals.

THE HALLOWEEN PARTY

When R. Pudans, in tights, danced with A. Lehman, while R. Vasey looked on.

DANNY JOHNSON

A magician who attended the Ohio School for the Deaf, and who showed P. Dalen and J. Peebler how to tear paper correctly.

THE RECREATIONAL STAFF
